After slamming on the brakes, Tuning World Bodensee is back with new dates

Friedrichshafen, Germany — Following the cancellation of this year's Tuning World Bodensee (which was scheduled to take place from Apr. 30 to May 03, 2020) due to the coronavirus pandemic, the 18th edition of the international exhibition for car tuning, lifestyle and club scene will take place from Thursday, May 13, to Sunday, May 16, 2021, instead.

As Klaus Wellmann, CEO of Messe Friedrichshafen, explained, "Numerous dates had to be postponed or canceled all around the world due to the coronavirus and also we've found a new date for our event." Project lead Dirk Kreidenweiß added, "In close coordination with our exhibitors, partners, and the community, we've opted to schedule for Ascension Day next year. We're looking forward to a four-day celebration of the 18th birthday of Tuning World Bodensee and we're already working hard to organize next year's big party."

Exhibitors, visitors, and the community are being informed of the new dates.

The next Tuning World Bodensee will take place from Thursday, May 13, to Sunday, May 16, 2021, at the fairgrounds in Friedrichshafen, Germany. To find out more, visit: www.tuningworldbodensee.de,
