Messe Friedrichshafen postpones Aqua-Fisch

Coronavirus COVID-19: Messe Friedrichshafen postpones Aqua- Fisch

After consulting with the public health authority and the city of Friedrichshafen concerning coronavirus COVID-19, Messe Friedrichshafen has no alternative but to postpone on short notice its Aqua-Fisch event, which was scheduled to take place from March 6 to 8.

“With a heavy heart, we announce that, due to official recommendations, we feel compelled to postpone Aqua-Fisch, which was to begin tomorrow. This decision is made all the more painful by the fact that our set-up for the fair is already in full swing. We deeply regret this decision and, in particular, its short-term nature, but the well-being of our guests is, naturally, our top priority,” explains Messe Friedrichshafen CEO Klaus Wellmann. Project Manager Petra Rathgeber added: “We are seeking close collaboration with the event’s exhibitors and partners in order to develop a favorable and forward-looking solution.” The new dates for our Aqua-Fisch event will be announced in due course.

Exhibitors, visitors and participating partners have just been informed about the postponement.
